Club Displays – The Club display area is free of charge to Japanese & European Bike Clubs; we also pay appearance and prize money under certain conditions. Please reserve the following club.....a site for the display of Bikes. You are expected to occupy the site on both days and will be issued with one pass per display bike and one extra pass for a support vehicle, if requested. If you wish to discuss this further prior to making your booking please call Andrew Greenwood on 01484 452002. You may also sell parts from the stand but you must pay for the proportion of the stand selling spares, again please contact the organiser.

Concours – This section is open to private individuals who wish to display their own motorcycle, there is no charge for this section. There will be plaques and trophies and cash prizes presented to the various categories on Sunday afternoon however only those bikes displaying on both days will be considered for the awards.
